

Smithsonian Digital Volunteers: Transcription Center

Ann Yue

Show: All Projects Sort: Least Complete Difficulty: All Include Completed Projects

1% COMPLETE
207 Total Pages
22 Contributing Members
START CONTRIBUTING TODAY.

TENNESSEE ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER, PRESS COPIES OF LETTERS SENT, VOL. 3 (AGO VOL. 9), DEC. 30, 1865–FEB. 13, 1866, PART 1
The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, often referred to as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established on March 3, 1865. The duties of the Freedmen's Bureau included supervision of all affairs relating to refugees, freedmen, and the custody of abandoned lands and property. These documents come from the Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of Tennessee, Series 2: Press Copies of Letters Sent. Please note that many of these pages are illegible or partly illegible. Please mark any illegible words or passages as `[[illegible]]`. Additional resources are available on the Freedmen's Bureau Instructions Page. Please help us transcribe these records to learn more about the lives of formerly enslaved men and women in Tennessee during the Reconstruction Era.

4% COMPLETE
311 Total Pages
33 Contributing Members
START CONTRIBUTING TODAY.

TENNESSEE ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER, REGISTERED LETTERS RECEIVED, ENTERED IN REGISTER 1, M–T, 1865, PART 3
The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, often referred to as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established on March 3, 1865. The duties of the Freedmen's Bureau included supervision of all affairs relating to refugees, freedmen, and the custody of abandoned lands and property. These documents come from the Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of Tennessee, Series 8: Registered Letters Received. Additional resources are available on the Freedmen's Bureau Instructions Page. Please help us transcribe these records to learn more about the lives of formerly enslaved men and women in Tennessee during the Reconstruction Era.

About the Project

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, often referred to as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established on March 3, 1865. The duties of the Freedmen's Bureau included supervision of all affairs relating to refugees, freedmen, and the custody of abandoned lands and property. These documents come from the Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of Tennessee, Series 2: Press Copies of Letters Sent. Please note that many of these pages are illegible or partly illegible. Please mark any illegible words or passages as `[[illegible]]`. Additional resources are available on the Freedmen's Bureau Instructions Page. Please help us transcribe these records to learn more about the lives of formerly enslaved men and women in Tennessee during the Reconstruction Era.

Read More

Catalog Record | Go to Page Go

Transcribe
Review
DIFFICULTY (5 out of 5) (details)
Project Progress (details)

22 CONTRIBUTING MEMBERS

207 TOTAL PAGES

TRANSCRIPTION FORM INSTRUCTIONS

Transcription

Notes on Transcribing this page (optional)

Save OR Complete and Mark for Review

You are viewing pages needing transcription or review just transcription just review

Dear Mrs. Blake,

Dec 25, 1971

Thank you very much for your gift of the Reader Digest. I enjoy them very much, and I treasure every word that comes from you.

This year I have been unable to keep up with Christmas. I'm slower than formerly, and tire easily. Today all my brother's children and their families were here. It was exciting. There were about 19 children and parents. You can imagine the excitement and turmoil, but it was fun.

My Christmas gift to you and to others will be late. I just couldn't make it in time. I never want to lose you or Florio.

It now is 7:40 P.M.

and did not expect to receive your letter. I am very glad to hear from you and to hear that you are still in the good health of this state. I hope you will continue to the good health of the state. I hope you will continue to the good health of the state. I hope you will continue to the good health of the state.

I am very glad to receive your communication of the 10th inst. and have therefore somewhat of the condition of our affairs at Memphis. I hope you will know of the chaotic condition of things in that town, and that you will find some room for putting you into that locality. I think that you will find some room for putting you into that locality. I think that you will find some room for putting you into that locality.

I have been advised that the irregular teacher you refer to are decided, for the meeting.

I expect to visit you very soon. I expect to visit you very soon. I expect to visit you very soon. I expect to visit you very soon. I expect to visit you very soon.

World the flesh and the devil.

Total pages	82,7592
Total contributors	28,4346
Average pages per project	106
Average number of contributors per project	37
Total number of projects	7609

Reflection

- self-selection of tasks
- little communication needed due to simplicity of task
- too easy to transcribe = waste of time?
- transcription of historical documents is too vague to leverage citizen science
- adding some tech to the website would make it easier

Questions?